

An Introduction to...

Memory Made Easy

for business

In a competitive marketplace, how do you stand out?

Forgotten names. Missed appointments. Fumbled presentations.

Memory mishaps erode your confidence and your results. Kristin Thompson is a professional speaker and coach best known for successfully coaching professionals to improve recall of names, presentations, and product information, training, and more...even in the most high-pressure business situations.

Kristin has coached Hasson Company Realtors, West Coast Bank, RE/MAX Equity Group, The Salem Chamber, Chemeketa Center for Business and Industry, and many more!

Join us for a fun, interactive program that will open your eyes to the real power of your natural memory and all the ways it can help you get noticed!

Find out how you can attract more clients more easily, deliver knock out presentations, and present yourself as the highly trained professional you truly are! You have the power.

Here are the “take aways” you’ll get from this program:

★ Find out how your memory is already affecting your results.

★ Boost your R.A.M. for names.

A three step process to help you improve your introductions and recall of names.

★ Avoid Being “the Crazy Repeater Person”

Is repeting names a cheesy and over-the-top technique?

★ Is memory an inherited trait?

We have some good news for you about your memory- even it you feel its failing you.

★ Power words for powerful presentations that sell

How your next presentation can be more compelling and easier to remember!

★ The way to recall information forwards, backwards, in and out of order so that you don’t get off guard in your next meeting or presentation!

How the Three P’s of our system power up your memory for product information, to-do’s, training, presentations and more!

Plus you’ll discover what can happen for you and your business when you dive in and learn these techniques on a deeper level!